St. James's, March 11.

THE following humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters of the Three Denominations in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Mr. Joſeph Burroughs, accompanied by ſeveral of his Brethren, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters of the Three Denominations in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WIth Hearts full of Duty and Gratitude for the many ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe and gracious Government, we beg Leave to expreſs our moſt hearty Concurrence with the reſt of your loyal Subjects, in a juſt Concern and Reſentment at the Attempts of ſome Foreign Powers, to violate, at once, the Rights of your Majeſty's Crown, and the moſt valuable Intereſts of your People. Not content with a Deſign to impoveriſh a rich and flouriſhing Nation, by turning the Stream of Commerce into another Channel, or with the Demand of Places eſſential to the Security of our Trade, acquired in a juſt War, and aſcertained to us by ſolemn Treaties, they would add the worſt of Miſchiefs, the Impoſition of a Popiſh Pretender.

This laſt Inſult, above all others, raiſes our Indignation. If ever God, for our Sins, ſhould ſuffer that vile Project to take Effect, it muſt intirely reverſe all the diſtinguiſhing Advantages procured to theſe Kingdoms by the Glorious Revolution, and ſince farther ſecured with the Expence of ſo much Blood and Treaſure, and deprive late Poſterity of all the Happineſs contrived for them by the wiſe Counſels of King William, of Immortal Memory. It muſt ſubvert our Fundamental Laws, which ſecure the Right of your Majeſty and of our Proteſtant Deſcendents to reign over Britain, as firmly as they ſecure to Britiſh Subjects their private Rights. It muſt therefore inevitably involve us in Confuſion and Ruin: And not affect Britons alone, but the Liberties of Europe, and the Proteſtant Intereſt in general; for we are perſwaded, the Conviction is growing Univerſal, that neither the one nor the other of theſe can ſubſiſt without the Proteſtant Succeſſion.

Tho' Events are out of all humane Reach, yet we cannot but hope, from the watchful Care of that kind Providence which hath ſo often been exerted in our Favour, from the Juſtice of the Cauſe in which we are engaged, from the wiſe Precautions already taken by your Majeſty, from the Fidelity and Steadineſs of your Counſels, from the Zeal of your Parliament, and from your great and extenſive Alliances, That ſuch pernicious Deſigns, inſtead of being attended with Succeſs, will be made to iſſue in the firmer Eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Throne, and the Tranquility of your People.

For this we offer up our hearty Prayers to the King of Kings: And we ſhall not ceaſe to uſe our beſt Endeavours to recommend all dutiful and chearful Subjection to your righteous Government. And while we are repeating the Aſſurance of our inviolable Adherence to your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe, we believe we ſpeak the Senſe of all who attend our Miniſtrations, who are zealouſly devoted by by Principle and Affection, as well as by Intereſt, to your Perſon and Family.

May your Majeſty, ſecure of tranſmitting your Crown and Glory to your Royal Progeny, and Happy in ſeeing the confirm'd Health and Proſperity of every Branch of your Family, long live the Arbiter of Europe; the Patron of the Oppreſſed every where; and the Common Father of Proteſtants: And may your Self enjoy, for many Years in Peace, the bleſſed Conſequences of all your Royal Cares: Reigning over a People duly ſenſible of their own Felicity; more Reformed from publick and threatning Vices; and more united than ever, in Piety to God, in Loyalty to their Prince, in Liberty to ſerve their Country, and in mutual Affection one to another.

Signed in the Name, and by the Direction of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters of the Three Denominations in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, the 9th of March 1726, by Joſeph Burroughs.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs. This ſeaſonable Inſtance of your Zeal for my Perſon and Government, cannot but be very acceptable to me. You may depend on my conſtant Protection.

His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly, and they all had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough and Town of Marlborough, in the County of Wilts, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Gabriel Roberts and Thomas Gibſon, Eſqrs, their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hertford, Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Wilts. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough and Town of Marlborough, in the County of Wilts.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to return your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for the timely, wiſe and juſt Meaſures your Majeſty has taken to ſecure to your Subjects their Poſſeſſions abroad, to ſupport their Trade againſt all Encroachments, and to defeat the wicked Deſigns againſt our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in your Majeſty's Line.

When the Peace of Europe is threatned, Great Britain cannot ſit ſtill indolent and unactive, and neglect the Means that Providence has put into her Hands to repel and reſent every unjuſt Attempt againſt her.

The vigorous Reſolutions of your Parliament have filled the Hearts of this Corporation with the utmoſt Joy and Satisfaction; and we are firmly perſwaded, from your Majeſty's indefatigable Care, from the prudent Diſpoſition of your Fleets abroad, and of your Troops at home, that though neither the moſt ſolemn Treaties, Faith nor Gratitude can bind the two aſpiring Princes that ſeek to diſturb the Peace of Europe, yet your Majeſty, by the Bleſſing of God, can check the lawleſs Ambition of the one, and the unjuſt Deſigns of the other: And we do hereby heartily and chearfully promiſe for our Part, that we will to the utmoſt of our Power ſupport your Majeſty againſt the Pretender and all your Enemies both at home and abroad, and hope they will ſoon be convinc'd, that your Proteſtant Subjects defy the open Menaces, as well as the dark and perfidious Practices of ſuch Powers as ſhall at any time dare to invade our Religious or Civil Rights and Properties.

Given under our common Seal in the Council-Chamber in the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, the 1ſt Day of March, in the 13th Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Citizens of the ancient City of Cheſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Richard Groſvenour, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cholmondeley, Lord-Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County Palatine of Cheſter. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Citizens of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal City of Cheſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects do humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Hearts truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your moſt wiſe and glorious Adminiſtration.

As Trade is both the Ornament and Support of Great Britain, every Breach into the Fences and Privileges wherewith that is guarded, has always been looked upon as the higheſt of all Injuries to this Nation.

And ſince we ſee Powers abroad (however oppoſite in their Views) uniting themſelves in Defiance of the moſt ſolemn Treaties: When we ſee our moſt valuable Branches of Trade uſurp'd, our Poſſeſſions attacked, and our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in the Proteſtant Line threatened with an Invaſion, even without Provocation, and againſt the Force of the higheſt Obligations, we cannot too gratefully acknowledge your Majeſty's paternal Care of your People, by thoſe timely Precautions that have been taken, which have hitherto put a Stop to the dangerous Deſigns of your Enemies.

It is with the utmoſt Indignation and Reſentment, that we behold foreign Princes ſetting up ſecret Alliances to attempt an Invaſion upon your Majeſty's Kingdoms in favour of a Popiſh Pretender; but though Schemes of this dangerous Nature are concerted abroad, they muſt be ſtrangely infatuated to imagine, that the Spirit of the Engliſh Nation is ſunk ſo low, as tamely to ſubmit to ſuch Uſurpations, and to have ſo little Regard either for their Religion or their Liberty, as to exchange both for Superſtition and Slavery.

We therefore beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we in our ſeveral Capacities will upon all Occaſions exert ourſelves with the utmoſt Vigour and Reſolution in Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and in Support of that excellent Conſtitution which is happily eſtabliſhed amongſt us both in Church and State.

The following humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, Landholders, and Commoners of the ancient Borough of Malmsbury, in the County of Wilts, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Argyll, High-Steward of the ſaid Borough. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, Landholders and Commoners of the ancient Borough of Malmsbury, in the County of Wilts.

IT is with greateſt Gratitude imaginable we approach your Sacred Majeſty with this Addreſs of Duty and Thanks for the Peace and Plenty we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's Reign, and for the moſt prudent Methods which have been taken to continue thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings to us and our Poſterity; the early and ſeaſonable Diſcovery of the Deſigns of our Enemies; your ſending your Fleets to diſtant Parts of the World; providing Gibraltar and Port-Mahon with all Neceſſaries for their Defence; and your Majeſty's vigorous Reſolution to part with nothing which of Right belongs to the Trade, Safety, and Honour of theſe Kingdoms, are Inſtances of your Majeſty's moſt conſummate Wiſdom, and the Love and Regard you have for the Welfare of your People. We will in Return behave ourſelves as moſt dutiful Subjects, having the higheſt Obligations to the beſt of Princes: We will in our ſeveral Stations be induſtrious in promoting the Manufactures and Trade of our Country; and upon all Occaſions we will Part with our Fortunes, and lay down our Lives for the Defence of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government.

The following humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Minehead, in the County of Somerſet, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Hales and Francis Whitworth, Eſqrs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable Sir Robert Walpole, Chancellour of the Exchequer. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Minehead, in the County of Somerſet.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE humbly crave Leave, among the reſt of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, who during your happy Reign, have alſo ſhared thoſe reiterated Bleſſings through Means of your allwiſe and paternal Care, and thereby juſtly raiſed in us ſo deep a Senſe of Gratitude, that we eſteem it our indiſpenſible Duty to Addreſs your Majeſty on this preſent Juncture of Affairs, at a Time when the perfidious Violation of the moſt ſoleinn Treaties Abroad never appeared more barefac'd, nor when Love and Loyalty ever can look better at Home; when the beſt of Sovereigns muſt be threatned with freſh Troubles, the moſt beneficial Part of our Trade aimed at, and whoſe infatuated Schemes, attended with Succeſs, would dart us into ſo great a pitch of Ruin, and center in the total Subverſion of the beſt of Religions, Laws, and Liberties, and place over us the unhappy Inſtrument of ſo much Strife and Contention, (ſo worthleſs a Creature) as deſerves no other Room in Paper, but to render him obnoxious to all your loving Subjects, ſincerely devoted to their Prince: May therefore not only the Projects of that Impoſtor always prove fruitleſs and abortive, but all other Diſturbers whatſoever of your Regal Government: May your Majeſty's Forces ever ride in Triumph at Sea, and bravely win and wear the gay Laurel by Land, and let the Enemy feel the Stroke of Juſtice as their due Rewards, to the Joy of your own People and Dread of others: May Almighty God grant you a long Life to ſee your Dominions flouriſh in Riches, Peace and Plenty, and kindly afford us an illuſtrious Branch of your Royal Iſſue to fill the Britiſh Throne to the End of Time, ſhall be the Prayers of,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, Gentlemen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of His Majeſty's Town and Corporation of Deal, one of the Members of the Cinque Ports in the County of Kent, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Captain Hercules Baker, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, Gentlemen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Town and Corporation of Deal.

YOUR Majeſty's faithful Subjects the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, Freemen and Inhabitants of your Town and Corporation of Deal, always ſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, humbly offer to your Majeſty the ſincere and thankful Expreſſions of their Joy, occaſioned by your Majeſty's particular Care and Prudence in the preſent Juncture of Affairs in Europe.

It is with equal Surprize and Indignation that we find Engagements formed and entered into againſt your Majeſty and your Peoples Intereſt by thoſe very Powers whom the Britiſh Nation hath put into a Capacity of being not only injurious to their Friends, but even ſecure from their Neighbours.

Attempts for ſurpreſſing the Trade and Rights of Great Britain, are in the Judgment of our Enemies vain and fruitleſs without firſt opening a Door to thoſe Miſchiefs by impoſing a Popiſh Pretender on the Throne of theſe Proteſtant Kingdoms.

But we deſire Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Inhabitants of this Maritime Town, who have formerly had ſome Share in the Honour acquired by the Britiſh Fleet, will be always ready to give your Majeſty real Aſſurances of their Readineſs to aſſiſt your Majeſty with our Perſons and Eſtates, in the juſt and valuable Deſign of protecting our Trade and Commerce, the ſecuring the Poſſeſſions of the Crown Abroad, and the oppoſing all Deſigns and Attempts to ſubvert the Settlement of the Crown of theſe Kingdoms on your Majeſty and your Royal Iſſue, the Pledges of our future Peace and Security.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, and Common-Council of the Corporation of Graveſend and Milton, in the County of Kent, has been preſented to His Majeſty by William Lance, Eſq; Mayor of the ſaid Corporation, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports. Which Addreſs His was Majeſty pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, and Common-Council of the Corporation of Graveſend and Milton, in the County of Kent.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, humbly approach your Royal Preſence at this critical Time, in which thoſe formidable Combinations of Potent Princes againſt the Peace and Proſperity of theſe your Dominions, that for a great while were concealed, do openly ſhew themſelves; and with Hearts full of Duty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, we beg Leave to aſſure you of our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of all the Projects and Endeavours of the Pretender and his Adherents, for placing him on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms; and humbly think, that a Proteſtant free People can never exert themſelves with too much Zeal in Defence of the Proteſtant Settlement of the Crown in your Majeſty's Family, the Baſis of all our valuable Rights and Privileges.

As your Majeſty's Poſſeſſion of Gibraltar and Port Mahon (which are now attempted to be wreſted from us,) was confirmed to this Nation after a vaſt Expence of Blood and Treaſure; ſo we hope the Vigour of the Engliſh Nation, ſeconding your Majeſty's wiſe Schemes for ſecuring them, will have a happy Effect, that the End will be the Diſappointment and Confuſion of your Enemies.

The preſerving our Trade in all its Branches is of the laſt Conſequence to your People, and Infractions of Treaties, by which any Part of it has been ſecured to us, affect that Part of our Property, which ariſes from our Induſtry, too much to be tamely acquieſced in: And as we have Reaſon humbly to thank your Majeſty for your Care and Vigilance, in preventing hitherto the Schemes of our Enemies taking Effect; ſo we intirely rely (next to the Divine Providence,) on your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Power, in Conjunction with your High Allies, for the re-eſtabliſhing the Peace of Europe, by ſettling the Ballance of Power in ſo juſt a Manner, that we your Majeſty People may for the future enjoy their Religion, Liberty and Trade, without Danger or Diſturbance.

Madrid, March 3, N. S. On the 25th paſt their Catholick Majeſties came from the Pardo to the Buen-Retiro, where they will remain for three Months. On the 26th this Court diſpatched a Courier to Paris, in Anſwer to the Letters which the Duke of Bournonville's nonville's Courier brought hither on the 23d from Vienna by the Way of Paris: By the ſaid Courier Advice was ſent of the Spaniſh Army's having opened the Trenches before Gibraltar on the 21ſt paſt at Night. Two Couriers more from Vienna are arrived at this Court within this laſt Week. On the 27th paſt his Excellency Mr. Stanhope, Ambaſſadour of the King of Great Britain, went to the Marqueſs de la Paz and acquainted him, that Hoſtilities having been begun by the Spaniſh Army before Gibraltar, he had taken his Reſolution to leave this Court without Loſs of Time, and for that Purpoſe deſired his Catholick Majeſty would pleaſe to grant him the neceſſary Paſſports for Himſelf, his Family, and his Equipages: Though the Marqueſs promiſed thoſe Paſſports immediately, yet they have not hitherto been delivered to his Excellency: But he expects them to Morrow, and propoſes to ſet out from hence the 5th or 6th Inſtant. The Duke of Liria having received at his Catholick Majeſty's Treaſury Eight Thouſand Piſtoles for his Journey, and Four Thouſand Piſtoles more in Advance on Account of his Appointments as Ambaſſadour from Spain to Muſcovy, intends to be going in a few Days by the Way of Italy and Vienna. Letters from Cadiz of the 25th paſt adviſe, that the Governour, in Conſequence of the Hoſtilities begun againſt Gibraltar, has detained four Britiſh Merchant Ships till he ſhall receive Orders from Court; but that he has not moleſted yet the Britiſh Merchants reſiding there: And that ſeveral Boats which went with Stores for the Camp, having heard the firing of the Cannon, are returned for Fear of the Engliſh Men of War. 'Tis adviſed from Malaga the 25th paſt, that an Engliſh Ship called the Dorothy, bound for London with Wine, which was the only Engliſh Ship there, as ſhe was going to ſail out of the Mole was ſtopt by Order of the Governour till he ſhould hear from Court: That another Engliſh Ship called the Priſcilla coming in from Amſterdam, being informed of what had happened, immediately put to Sea again, and luckily got away: That the Engliſh Conſul, and ſome other Engliſh Merchants there, had retired into Convents for Fear of being ſeized: And that the Duke of Wharton was gone to the Spaniſh Camp. The Advices from the Spaniſh Army before Gibraltar are, that moſt of the Cannon being arrived on the 21ſt paſt, the Conde de las Torres began to open the Trenches the Night following with five Batallions, upon which the Governour ſent out to him to know the Reaſons of his Proceedings, but receiving no ſatisfactory Anſwer the Firing began; That the Spaniards have ſince loſt a good Number of Men, both by the Fire from the Town and from the Ships of the Britiſh Squadron: That the Garriſon had made a Sally with a Party of Grenadiers: That the Night of the 24th paſt two Spaniſh Regiments called Antwerp and Naples, and an Iriſh Batallion, miſtaking each other for the Enemy, fired upon one another in the Trenches; by which ſome Officers and a good many Men were killed: And that the Spaniſh Army had been conſiderably diminiſhed, both by Deſertion and Sickneſs which ſtill continued among them to a great Degree.

Dublin, March 2. Yeſterday, being the Birth-Day of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown-Green. At Noon there was a ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, to compliment the Lords Juſtices upon this Occaſion; and at Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies, for the Entertainment of the Ladies.

Whitehall, March 9, 1726-7.

Whereas ſome wicked Perſons have lately counterfeited Notes in Imitation of the Twenty Shilling Notes of the Bank of Scotland, and thereby impoſed upon and defrauded Numbers of unwary Perſons, to the great Prejudice of that Company, and of many of His Majeſty's Subjects; His Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed, in order to the diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons guilty of ſo villanous a Forgery, to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any Perſon concerned in the ſaid Crime, that ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted of the ſame.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt-Indies, do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be holden at their Houſe in Fenchurch-ſtreet, London, on Friday the 24th of this Inſtant March, at Eleven in the Forenoon, the ſame being a Quarterly Court. And that a General Court of the ſaid Company will be holden at the ſame Place on Wedneſday the 12th of April next, for the Election of 24 Directors for the Year enſuing, which will continue from Nine a-Clock in the Morning till Six in the Afternoon of the ſame Day, after which Time no Liſts will be taken in. That the Liſts of the Members of the ſaid Company will be ready to be delivered at the ſaid Houſe on Thurſday the 30th of this Inſtant March. South-Sea-Houſe, London, March 9, 1726-7.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That the South-Sea Annuity Tranſfer Books will be ſhut on Thurſday the 23d Inſtant, in order to the making out the Warrants for the Half Year's Annuity due at Lady-Day next; and that the ſame will be opened again on Tueſday the 25th of April next.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England give Notice, That a General Court to conſider of a Dividend will be held at the Bank on Thurſday next, the 16th Inſtant, at Eleven in the Forenoon: And alſo, That another General Court will be held at the Bank on Tueſday the 11th of April next, from Nine in the Forenoon to Six in the Afternoon, for the Election of a Governour, nour and Deputy-Governour for the Year enſuing; which Election will be declared that Evening: And the ſaid Court will be continued by Adjournment, and held at the ſame Place, and during the ſame Hours, on Wedneſday the 12th of April, for the Election of Twenty Four Directors (which will be alſo one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by the Charter,) and the Election of the Twenty four Directors will be declared as ſoon as the Scrutiny is over. Printed Liſts of the Proprietors having Votes, will be ready to be delivered at the Bank on Thurſday the 6th of April.

Royal Exchange Aſſurance-Office, March 8, 1726.

The Court of Directors of the Royal Exchange Aſſurance Company do hereby give Notice, That the Transfer Books of the ſaid Company will be ſhut from Thurſday the 16th Inſtant, to Thurſday the 13th of April next, in order to a Dividend.
